The Horse-Thief and Murderer of Marshal Mitchell Arrested-Great Excitsment Prevailing--The Prisoner Threatened with Lynch-Law. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., June 28 .- The murderer of Marshal Mitchell was caught at Middleport, Ohio, last night, and brought here to-day. .

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] BARBOURSVILLE, W. VA., June 28 .- Great excitement prevails in this community over the death of Hon. J. H. Mitchell, marshal of Huntington, who was murdered, as announced by telegraph, yesterday.

to recover. He has made his will. He is still at Mr. Burdett's, near Hurricane, where he was shot. Five hundred dollars reward was offered by the Mayor of Huntington for the murderer, who was arrested at Middleport, Ohio. He crossed the ferry at Middleport, riding a horse stolen from the ferryman's father, and was recognized as the same. Great anxiety existed all the morning with the people of this place and Huntington awaiting arrival of the steamer with the murderer aboard. At 3 P. M. the steamer Ohio, No. 4, made her appearance, when the wharf-boat was thronged with people. The murderer soon came out, and was identified immediately by several. He was taken by the train via the Chesapeake and Ohio railway at 6 o'clock to Putnam county jail.

Very little encouragement would have organized a vigilance committee resulting in their taking the law into their own hands, and it is thought they will lynch him yet. Heavy rains here to-day. No very serious damage done. Death of Hon. J. W. Sheffey.
